Courses on Competition Policy & Law

Certificate Course
- A Foundation Course

Diploma Course
- An Advanced Course

Are you

- An executive dealing with corporate affairs and business decisions?
- A corporate lawyer/CA/CS advising clients on the Indian Competition Act 2002 and related compliance issues?
- A student pursuing professional course in law/ management/ economics?
- An individual having interest in the implementation of competition policy and law?

If you are

These courses for acquiring cutting-edge proficiencies and skills on Competition Policy and Law will strengthen your professional skills on how to analyse and address issues relevant to Competition Policy and Law which will help you to perform more effectively and enhance your potential as a professional.

You will gain

- Analytical skills in competition areas including: merger control; abuse of dominance issues; restrictive agreements within commercial contracts, public procurement, competition litigation and competition due diligence
- Understanding of substantive issues related to the Indian Competition Act 2002 and other jurisdictions
- Understanding of the expected role of different stakeholders and groups in order to ensure better market competitiveness and acceleration of economic growth

Rationale

A good competition law, along with a sound competition policy, helps in fostering competition, economic efficiency, consumer welfare and freedom of doing business. India enacted its Competition Act in 2002 (amended in 2007, referred to here as CA02) to deal with competition issues in a more liberalized market economy. This law is a successor to the Monopolies & Restrictive Trade Practices Act, 1969. The Competition Commission of India (CCI), set up under the CA02, is fully operational now.

The enforcement of competition law and its pervasive presence across the sectors and business functions is creating a high demand for competition professionals. Thus, the courses, specially designed to inculcate necessary knowledge and skills, among the participants to deal with the issues relating to anti-competitive agreements, abuse of dominance & regulation of combinations (M&As), IPRs etc, would greatly enhance the career opportunities and provide early-mover advantage to the participants

There is an urgent need to fill the gap between the current knowledge and the knowledge required while the CA02 is implemented. The Courses offered by the CUTS Institute for Regulation & Competition (CIRC) and National Law University(NLU), Delhi aim to fill this gap.
