

ENERGY SECTOR

FEBRUARY 2025

ELECTRICITY

CERC Amends Tariff Regulations on Power Generation, Cost Calculations, and Operational Procedures.

In February 2025, the Central Electricity Regulatory Commission (CERC) issued the Terms and Conditions of Tariff (First Amendment) Regulations, 2025. These amendments, effective from April 1, 2024, introduce changes impacting power generation tariffs, cost calculations, and operational procedures.

Official Notification: Central Electricity Regulation Commission

MARCH 2025

ELECTRICITY

CEA notifies draft CEA (Installation and Operation of Meters) (5th Amendment) Regulations, 2025

In March 2025, the Central Electricity Authority (CEA) notified the draft CEA (Installation and Operation of Meters) (5th Amendment) Regulations, 2025. A key change includes the revision of the definition of 'interface meter,' aiming to enhance the accuracy and reliability of energy metering systems.

Official Notification: Central Electricity Authority

OIL AND GAS

Decoded: What does the Oilfields Bill 2024 mean for India's energy sector?

In March 2025, the Lok Sabha passed the Oilfields (Regulation and Development) Amendment Bill, 2024. This legislation updates the 1948 Act to attract private investment, provide policy stability, and address environmental concerns, aiming to reduce reliance on imported crude oil.

Official Notification: Oilfields Regulation and Development Amendment Bill As passed by Rajya Sabha